

Aline and I enjoy watching CBC's Triple Sensation because during the audition stage we sometimes see a few people we recognize from the Ottawa arts scene. This year contestants included Leah Cogan who played the title role in the 2004 Orpheus Musical Society production of Annie Get Your Gun.

Leah made it through the auditions into the show and last night she won the first place prize of scholarship money to attend any performing arts school of her choice.

Congratulations Leah!