

Another successful hockey pool season as my Ryan Getzlaf and Corey Perry combo helped propel to victory in our Earl of Sussex pool. Good battle between Rick and I as eh caught me briefly in January and then again in early March where he opened up a 30-point lead after astute pickups of Ryan Miller and Ryan McDonough at the trade deadline but a few injuries fell his way, my guys caught fire again and I made a few final roster moves of my own to win handily by 30 points.

In my inaugural season in Donald's pool I won the first two months and then coasted to the Mr. Hockey title the rest of the way.
