 Hazel has been invited to Danica's birthday party next month. She's not interested. The moment we brought it up and she understood that Sam, mum and I wouldn't be there she got very quiet and told us she didn't want to go. Later, she told me she was scared to go alone. Wonder how long this will last?
